'Based on a show I produced, called Genesis, (DVDs are available) this workshop will explore the beauty of God's creation, and humanity's destruction of it.

Create a dance of new beginnings this Easter, looking forward with hope.'

Louise Ryrie has been a Ballet, Pilates and Dance teacher, running a school for children & adults for 24 years in Crawley, West Sussex. She founded a Performing Arts Church in 2005 for young people, following a decade of working as a Church Pianist. She has also developed Prayerful Pilates, recently written about in Premier Christianity magazine, and enjoyed teaching her first CDFB workshop in February this year.
